THE RIVAL FACTIONS

CARRYING ON THEIR BATTLE AT THE POLLS.

Deadlier Weapons Than the Ballot May be Used—Many Votes Cast Early—The Streets of Cork Present a Lively Scene—Wednesday's Row.

CORK, Nov. 6.—To-day is to be settled the question of succession to the seat in the House of Commons from the city of Cork made vacant by the death of Charles Stewart Parnell. The Parnellite candidate is John E. Redmond, while Martin Flavin stands for the McCarthyite interest. The day's work opened with vigor, fifteen hundred votes being cast in the first hour. The streets are full of a noisy, horse-playing, but so far fairly well-behaved crowds of people. Nevertheless the accustomed blackthorn peeps from beneath many coat tails, and there are not wanting evidences that many hundreds of the throngs who patrol the streets are anything but averse to an exchange of blows. Priests, members of Parliament, candidates for political honors, are driving from booth to booth encouraging their followers and looking after the interests of their respective factions. As the leaders fly from place to place behind gesticulating drivers and flying horses, they are greeted with commingled cheers and groans. After each stop and before each fresh start some five or ten minutes is wasted in remonstrating with voice, fist and whip, against attempts of all the way from three to a dozen persons who wish to get upon the conveyance and ride to the next station. There are plenty of police guards in close proximity to the voting booths, and strong reserves are held in readiness for prompt service at all the station houses. In addition to these precautions there is an ample military force in the city, prepared to immediately reinforce the police should such a course become necessary. The soldiers are strictly confined to their barracks, through the gates and from the windows of which hundreds of them watch the roystering crowds passing to and fro.

The polling places are guarded by strong bodies of police. The polling has been going actively since morning, and both parties are determined to bring out their full strength. The Unionists are said to be standing very generally by their candidate, Captain Sarsfield. Every precaution has been taken to prevent serious trouble. The priests are actively working for the anti-Parnellite candidate, and Canon O'Mahony is conspicuous among the solicitors for Flavin. Redmond is directing his supporters in person.

TO KILL COL. CANTO.

A Plot in Santiago—Egan's Residence Watched—President Montt.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 5.—Santiago has been startled by the discovery of a conspiracy against the new government, with its centre in that city and a branch in Buenos Ayres. It is alleged that $2,000,000 has been subscribed to carry out the plans of the conspirators. Senor Juan McKenna, one of the political refugees in the United States legation, is accused of being the chief party in the movement. The other principal persons concerned in it are said to be officers formerly under Balmaceda, but now on parol. The main objects of the conspiracy are to be the assassination of Colonel Canto, commander congressional land force. It is said that dice were cast to decide which should kill him and it fell to the lot of Lieut.-Col. Gandarillas of Balmaceda's army to do so. The exposure of the plot is said to be due to the fact that a conspirator repented of his complicity in it and informed Barras Arana, a well-known Chilian historian. Senor Arana made known the facts to the government. Lieut.-Colonel Gandarillas was taken prisoner. The police are now devoting all their energies to the task of unravelling the plot.

Great indignation prevails both at Santiago and in this city. It is said that people in prominent circles are implicated, and conspirators to the number of forty-five, met at a house owned by Signor Curello. The conspiracy had progressed so far that committees had been formed to carry out the different parts of it.

It is reported that ex-Governor Valasquez was also one of the prime figures in the plot. Preparations had been made for a conjunction with Balmaceda's friends in Buenos Ayres. Minister Guerro has received threats from them.

Minister Egan says there is not the slightest truth in the report that Senor McKenna was engaged in conspiracy, or that any other political refugees at the United States legation were concerned in it.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Herald's Valparaiso special says: The discovery of a plot to assassinate Colonel Canto created great excitement here to-day. Canto led the forces of the Junta which landed at Quintero Bay, and which after a series of fights captured Valparaiso and led to the downfall of Balmaceda. He has as a consequence been the object of the cordial hatred of such of the partizans of the late president as are still in the country. It was among these that the plot was discovered. Just how the clue came into the hands of the authorities and the full details of the plot have not been made public, but enough is known to indicate that Canto had a narrow escape from death. The steamer Itata arrived at Valparaiso to-day, and her officers and crew were most heartily received by the populace. Many people visited the water front to get a sight of the famous ship.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Chilian question was made more interesting to-day by a telegram from Valparaiso stating that the government had doubled the number of watchers in the vicinity of Minister Egan's residence at Santiago. The Chilians appear to be on the lookout for some prominent Balmacedist who is suspected of being in Egan's house, with the intention of slipping away unobserved. The Chilian Minister at Paris is in constant communication with his government, and it is reported that Chili will soon place a large order for rifles with a French arms factory.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 5.—The election as president of Admiral Monnt is hailed with much enthusiasm on all sides, as he is popular with all classes. It is believed that the questions now at issue between Chili and the United States will be calmly discussed and the outcome will be satisfactory to both nations.

PATRICK EGAN.

The Man Intrusted With Uncle Sam's Business in Chili.

Mr. Egan is an Irishman by birth, a native of the County Longford, where he first saw the light in 1841. His father was a farmer at Ballymahon before the troublous times between 1846 and 1849 compelled him to give up agriculture and remove to Dublin for the chance of making a living. In that city young Patrick received his education from the Christian Brothers. He took great interest in politics from a child, and was one of the first Home Rulers and an early member of the council, at the head of the organization. Foremost among the founders of the Land League he was appointed its treasurer, an office which he resigned in 1882. Owing to political difficulties at home he lived in France during the last two years of his treasurership. Egan came to the United States in 1883 and settled in Lincoln, Neb., where he started a branch of the business in Dublin in which he had an interest, that of dealing in grain. He was chosen president of the Irish National Convention held in Boston in August, 1884. The same year, one year after he had applied for his first naturalization papers, he published a letter advocating the election of Mr. Blaine as President of the United States.

No Further Evidence in the Conspiracy Case Against Nanaimoites.

[Special to the TIMES.]

NANAIMO, Nov. 6.—The conspiracy case against Messrs. Keith, M.P.P., Boyce and Wilson, was brought up in court again to-day. There was no evidence produced by the prosecution, and as no further adjournment was asked for, the case was dismissed.

Ohio Claims More Territory.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—The Indiana and Ohio boundary line question is assuming startling aspects. The survey which is now being made under the direction of the national government will probably establish the fact that the true line, as declared when Ohio was organized into a state, begins twelve miles west of the present boundary line, at the north, and runs directly south to the present line between Ohio and Indiana, thus making a slip 200 miles long and of an average width of six miles to which the State of Ohio lays claim. The strip described includes the cities of Fort Wayne, Richmond and Union City, a population of about 200,000.

A Diver's Death.

ATHENS, Mich., Nov. 6.—The wrecking tug Emerald recently located near the wreck of the Peerless, which sank several years ago. On Tuesday, Pelkey, a professional diver, went down to the wreck to recover her treasure. In twenty minutes his signal stopped, and it was discovered that he was fast in the wreck. Six men were unable to pull him up. The tug was started and he was at last pulled to the surface. Water had rushed into his armour through a hole at the hip and strangled him. He gasped several times after reaching the tug, and died. He left a widow and child, who live at West Superior, Wis.

A 'Frisco Failure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—W. R. Strong & Co., one of the heaviest fruit-shipping houses on the Pacific coast, with various branches in this state and other cities, has assigned for the benefit of creditors. The company had outgrown its capital, and was unable to meet sudden demands of creditors. It has vast resources, and Manager Platt says if given a little time it will be able to meet all obligations.

A Forger Arrested.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 6.—A railroad detective named Robinson today arrested B. S. Barrett near Charlestown. The prisoner is alleged to have forged $75,000 in notes, and used them as collateral to secure money from Cleveland, Ohio, banks. Barrett was, until he ran away, a prominent church member and business man in Cleveland.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES

WILL STAY IN RUSSIA FOR THE CELEBRATION.

A Plot Caused the Czar to Change His Route—Beet Root for Food—Barbarous Superstitions in India—Serious Railway Disasters.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—It is said to be with the consent of the Prince of Wales that the Princess of Wales will be with the Czar and Czarina at the celebration of their silver wedding on Monday next, instead of helping to celebrate her husband's 50th birthday. The Princess will present to the Czar and Czarina the gift specially manufactured for the occasion in behalf of the Prince. This gift consists of two large pilgrims' bottles of silver, which are unique in their formation and workmanship. They were sent to Russia by special courier. The Duchess of Edinburgh, the Czar's only sister, will also be present, but without the Duke, who is enjoying himself in London in the absence of his Russian wife. The Princess of Wales will remain with her sister, the Czarina, until about the close of November. The two sisters are strongly attached to each other, and have not remained so long together in years as on this occasion. There appears, however, to be no ground for the gossip that there is any coolness between the Prince and Princess of Wales.

PLOT AGAINST THE CZAR.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—It transpires that the Czar altered his route in traveling to Livadia because of his having received warning from the police of a plot against his life.

BEET ROOT FOR BREAD.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.—Vast quantities of beet root refuse mixed with a small percentage of rye flour are being utilized for bread, and it is said to be palatable and nourishing. The frequent complaints of dishonesty in the management of funds entrusted to Government officials for relief purposes have caused some falling off in the contributions, and there is a growing demand that the expenditure of the money made by private charity be entrusted to private hands. The celebration of the Czar's silver wedding will not be attended by any great public demonstration, it being the express desire of the Czar to avoid this, owing to the suffering of millions of his subjects.

FRENCH MEAT DUTIES.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—The acceptance of a duty of 25 francs per 200 pounds on American salt meats by the customs committee of the Chamber of Deputies is regarded as a victory of the protectionist element over the advocates of 20 francs. The Government also strove for the 20 franc duty, but was overwhelmed by the protest from pig breeders in all parts of France.

BARBARITY IN INDIA.

CALCUTTA, Nov. 6.—The British authorities of Madras have instituted an investigation relative to a case of horrible barbarity and superstition reported from Madura. Rain has been very much needed in that vicinity, and the drouth was attributed by the superstitious natives to the malignity of an evil-minded female deity. To propitiate this deity they resolved on reviving an old practice of torture known as "hookswinging." A victim was found who consented to undergo the ordeal. The points of iron hooks were pushed into his back, a rope was fastened to the hooks and the poor wretch was hoisted into the air. His shrieks of agony were regarded as evidence that the goddess was being made to hear and would answer with the long looked for rain. After the man had hung for an hour he was taken down, apparently not fatally injured, although with two deep wounds in his back. Whether rain followed is not stated.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.—The Russian government is pushing forward the building of a fleet with more energy than ever, and several private shipyards will soon become the property of the government. The Czar is said to be anxious to make Russia a first-class naval power, and he means to have a strong fleet of sea-going iron clads and belted cruisers.

RAILWAY DISASTER IN INDIA.

BOMBAY, Nov. 6.—A tire of a driving wheel on the locomotive attached to a mail train proceeding from this city to Naghpur yesterday broke and the carriages telescoped. Five railway officials and five British soldiers were killed and 31 British and four natives injured. The commander-in-chief of the military district of Bombay was on the train but is believed to have escaped.

Three more deaths have resulted from the telescoping of the cars of the mail train yesterday while running from this city to Naughpur.

The Parnell Property.

When the fire occurred in the palace of the Prince of Wales, at Sandringham, the Mayor of King's Lynn responded to a call for help by sending the fire brigade of that town to aid in suppressing the flames. The Radicals of the vicinity have raised an issue as to the mayor's action, and are seeking to have him formally censured on the ground that his unauthorized zeal on behalf of the property of his future sovereign led him to put the town in danger in case of fire. The Loyalists are indignant at the raising of such a point, and are taunting the Radicals with using the issue for political purposes, and propose to present him with a testimonial, as an offset to the objections of the Radicals. The repairs at Sandringham are nearly completed.

The Jubilee programme on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the Prince of Wales' birth, November 9, includes tenants' and county balls, which the Prince will attend. The rumors current for some time, that one of the daughters of the Prince of Wales was about to marry the Viscount Chelsea, heir of Earl Cadogan, Lord Privy Seal, are now revived, and are strengthened by the additional report that Prince George of Wales is betrothed to the Earl's eldest daughter, Julia. Both the Duke of Clarence and Prince George are at present guests of Earl Cadogan and attend with the family of their host the county ball at Bury St. Edmunds, Wednesday night. The attentions of Prince George to the lady with whom his name is so happily coupled, have been very marked of late.

William Corboy, of Peterboro, suspecting his wife to be too intimate with a bachelor storekeeper, watched her Sunday evening, and discovered her in the merchant's private quarters, and shooting through the door nearly made an end of the merchant, the ball going through his shirt collar and making a flesh wound in his neck. The affair is current town talk and the merchant has declined to prosecute. Chief Ryan summoned Corboy for carrying firearms and he was fined $20.

The other morning a young woman, who gave her name as Margaret Martin, gave birth to a child in a cell at the Peterboro, police station. The young woman went to Dr. Brennan's office at about 2:30 a.m., and the doctor telephoned for the police to have her cared for. She was taken to the cells, and Dr. Yelland, town physician, was summoned by telephone, but before he arrived the child was born. The young woman said that her husband had died about four months ago, and that she had been employed at Springville as a domestic. Bishop Young, of Athabasca, in a letter dated Dunvegan, September 14th, reports that last winter Albert J. Kneeland, while engaged in driving cattle some twenty miles above Vermillion on Peace River, observed a heavy smoke arising from a place where a considerable land slip had occurred. Being in the vicinity some months later he noticed the smoke was still rising and the ground was bare of snow in the vicinity where the smoke was proceeding from. Last August Bishop Young and Mr. Kneeland visited and carefully examined the broken ground in the vicinity of the land slip and found that the smoke exceeded from some deep fissures occasioned by the land slips, and strong fumes much like those from a brick kiln arose. Burning paper was dropped down these fissures, but no result followed, clearly proving that the heat and fumes arise from a different source than the gas springs on the Athabasca river. Bishop Young is of the opinion that the burning, which has not been more than two years in existence, arises from a seam of coal which the land slide has exposed. The face of the river bank in the vicinity is marked by a bluish shale which frequently discolors the banks of the Peace River.

BRIGGS HERESY CASE.

New York Presbytery Dismisses the Charges Against Dr. Briggs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The New York Presbytery assembled yesterday morning in the Scotch Presbyterian church for the purpose of beginning the trial of Professor Charles A. Briggs, on the charges of heresy, based upon the language used by him in his inaugural address in the Union Theological Seminary. Dr. John C. Bliss presided as moderator. The full text of the charges is as follows:

The Presbyterian church of the United States charges Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D.D., being a minister of the Presbyterian church and a member of the Presbytery of New York, with teaching doctrines which conflict irreconcilably with and are contrary to the cardinal doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures and contained in the standards of the Presbyterian church, that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

These hurtful errors, striking at the vitals of religion and contrary to the regulations and practice of the Presbyterian church, were promulgated in an inaugural address which Dr. Briggs delivered at the Union Theological Seminary, New York, January 20, 1891, on the occasion of the induction into the Edward Robinson chair of Biblical theology, which address, with Dr. Briggs' approval, has been published and extensively circulated, and republished in a second edition with a preface and appendix.

Specification No. 1.—Dr. Briggs declares that there were historically three great fountains of divine authority—the Bible, the church and reason—thus making the church and reason each to be an independent and sufficient fountain of divine authority.

Specification No. 2.—Dr. Briggs affirms that in the case of some the Holy Scriptures are not sufficient to give that knowledge of God and His will which is necessary unto salvation, even though they strive ever so hard; and that such persons setting aside the supreme authority of the Word of God can obtain that saving knowledge of Him through the church.

Specification No. 3.—Dr. Briggs affirms that some, such as James Martineau, who denies the doctrines of the holy trinity, the incarnation, the atonement, the resurrection of the body, the personality of the Holy Ghost, who rejects the miracles and denies the truth of the gospel narratives, as well as most of the theology of the epistles, to whom the Holy Scripture is not sufficient to give that knowledge of God and His will which is necessary unto salvation, may turn from the supreme authority of the word of God and find that knowledge of Him through reason.

Specification No. 4.—Dr. Briggs asserts that the temperaments and environments of men determine which of the three ways of access to God they may pursue.

Specification No. 5.—Dr. Briggs makes statements in regard to the Holy Scriptures which cannot be reconciled with the doctrine of the true and full inspiration of those Scriptures as the "word of God written."

Specification No. 6.—Dr. Briggs asserts that Moses is not the author of the Pentateuch, and that Isaiah is not the author of half of the books which bear his name.

Specification No. 7.—Dr. Briggs preaches that predictive prophecy has been reversed by history, and that much of it has not and cannot ever be filled.

Professor Briggs read a paper objecting to the form of the charges preferred, stating that the report of the committee which formulated the indictment against him charges offenses which are not now proposed for trial. The committee charges him with uttering doctrinal teachings respecting the miracles, the origin and condition of man, etc., without attempting to prove the charges. This, Professor Briggs said, did him great injustice, and was apt to prejudice the decision of the members. He said that if he had caused whispered anxiety in the presbytery he was sorry, but in his conscience he felt no guilt with regard to disturbing the peace harmony of the church. He further added that the charges were general and obscure and irregular in form throughout. There is nothing in the specifications that can be tested by defendant. He admitted the extracts from his address made on the occasion of his inaugural as professor of Biblical theology in Union Theological seminary. The facts relied upon to sustain the charges are missing in the indictment. He said also that the indictment contained quotations wholly unwarranted. He denied that he had ever taught doctrines conflicting with the Holy Scriptures as the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

In the afternoon the resolutions of Dr. Vandyke were taken up. Dr. Vandyke made a dignified and earnest plea in support of the proposition to dismiss the case against Dr. Briggs. After an extended discussion the resolution to dismiss was read and a vote taken, resulting 94 for and 39 against. This action, however, does not end the controversy, as it will undoubtedly be taken before the New York synod.

Held Up a Train.

OMAHA, Nov. 5.—The Missouri Pacific train, which left Omaha last night, was held up by four masked men at Westside suburb at 11 o'clock. They covered the engineer and fireman with their rifles and revolvers. By threatening to blow open the floor of the mail car with dynamite the clerk was induced to admit the robbers, who plundered the car. The officers refuse to give any information as to the amount of money taken, but it is said large sums for Kansas City and St. Louis were secured.

Chicago's Newest Enterprise.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Such effete romancers as Jules Verne and Rider Haggard must now hide their diminished heads. A brand-new Chicago enterprise with the title of "The United States Rapid Transit company," has been incorporated at Springfield, with a capital of $5,000,000, which threatens, according to its promoters, to supersede all the systems of passenger traffic at present existing, and plunge all the street railroad companies into immediate bankruptcy. Its promoters propose to string enormous cables over the tops of the houses. On these will be rigged carriages, which will convey Chicagoans from point to point with inconceivable rapidity. The whole business will be driven by electricity. The cables will be strung at such a height as to clear the top of the tallest houses. The incorporators are John Irvine, Isaac S. Dyer and Frank A. Anderson.

BAIE DES CHALEURS.

Evidence Given by President Cooper and J. C. Langelier.

QUEBEC, Oct. 31.—Cooper, president of the Baie des Chaleurs Railway Company, testified before the royal commission yesterday that he turned Armstrong over to Thom, who made arrangements with him for the completion of the railway. He was not aware Armstrong was to receive $75,000. He never spoke to Pacaud about the business, but he knew Armstrong used him some two years ago to negotiate with the Government on his behalf. Witness knew of no corrupt bargain between the Government and Armstrong.

J. C. Langelier gave evidence at this morning's sitting of the court. He was named commissioner in November, 1889, to settle the claims of the old company. He was also named in the same capacity in the following year in regard to the new syndicate about the first April, 1890. Thom came to witness' office to get information regarding the Baie des Chaleurs Railway. Witness gave him all the information he had. On April 23rd Thom told him he had accepted the Government proposition. On April 29th Thom gave witness a letter in which he stated he agreed to give Armstrong $175,000 as a final settlement. Witness was informed it would be paid by an advance made by the Union Bank. He afterwards learned that the advance would be repaid by a letter of credit. Witness went with Armstrong to the Banque Nationale to negotiate the $75,000 letter of credit. On the way there they met Thom, and he accompanied them to the bank. From the Union Bank Armstrong invited the witness to go to Pacaud's office. He went thither. Pacaud was in and they entered the latter's private office. Armstrong asked witness to make him a check for $100,000. Witness sat down and wrote a check. Meanwhile Pacaud got up and going to Armstrong whispered in his ear. Pacaud and Armstrong then withdrew to an adjacent room. Both returned shortly, and Armstrong asked the witness to make out five checks of $20,000 each, instead of the $100,000 check. Witness thereupon wrote the checks, tore up the $100,000 one, placed five checks on Pacaud's desk and went out.

A Counterfeiter Caught.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A special from New Orleans to the Herald says: An important arrest was made here to-day, which will prevent the issuance of a large number of bogus bonds of the Republic of Honduras. Jesus Astega, who is said to be an expert counterfeiter from Honduras, applied several days ago to two engraving firms of this city to print for him a large number of Honduras bonds, presenting evidence that he was duly authorized by the republic to have the bonds printed. He also applied to one of the engravers for a steel stamp, a fac-simile of the signature of the president of Honduras. The matter coming to the knowledge of Lamar Quintero, the Costa Rica consul, an investigation was set on foot by him and the character of Astega was exposed. As a result Consul Quintero applied to the U. S. commissioner for a search warrant. A visit was paid by the consul and deputy marshall to Astega's quarters, where a number of criminating papers and a quantity of forged bonds were discovered. Astega's arrest followed, and he was arraigned before the commissioner and went to jail in default of bail.

Brazilian News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Herald's special from Rio Janeiro, Brazil, says: Recently an attempt has been made to curb the power of the chief executive. The fact that Da Fonseca is a military man has led many to fear, or to pretend to fear, that he might proclaim himself dictator. To prevent any such contingency, Congress, a short while ago, passed a law fixing the process of impeachment of the president. Da Fonseca vetoed the measure. His veto was considered in a heated session, which resulted in the carrying of a motion to override the veto. As soon as this action of the National Legislature was made known to Da Fonseca he became very much excited, and thereupon dissolved Congress. His decree to that effect was made public yesterday. Martial law has been proclaimed throughout Rio Janeiro and the other states forming the confederacy. The feeling here is one of great fear. The dissolution of Congress may result in the choice of another president.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidneys or urinary organs of either sex.

THE DOMINION CABINET.

Chapleau appears to have fairly backed down and eaten his leek with the best grace possible. An official statement regarding Cabinet affairs has been furnished by Premier Abbott to the Government organs, as follows:—

So many rumors having appeared in the press with reference to the position of the Hon. Mr. Chapleau and the Cabinet, the following statement was authorized to-day to be made public by the Premier, with the concurrence of Hon. Mr. Chapleau. A conference took place a few days ago between the Premier and the Secretary of State on the subject of the Department of Railways and Canals. Some of Mr. Chapleau's friends have long been anxious that he should be placed at the head of that branch of the Government; but Mr. Chapleau, realizing that a transfer at the present time from his department of Secretary of State to that above mentioned would be attended with some embarrassment to the Government, finally decided to relieve the Premier from such embarrassment and to state that he would not press any claim which he might have for the portfolio of Railways and Canals. He was naturally anxious that the Province of Quebec should not be in a less advantageous position in the reorganization of the Government than if he had received that portfolio, and as it had been the Hon. Mr. Abbott's intention from the first that Railways or Public Works should go to one of the Quebec Ministers, there was not longer any difficulty on that point. A great deal of surmise has attended the rumored resignation of the Secretary of State, for much more has been stated than has been justified by the facts. All the ministers, including Mr. Chapleau, yesterday placed their portfolios unreservedly at the disposal of the Premier, so as to leave his hand perfectly free as to the choice of those who are to assist him in the various departments when their reorganization takes place. All hold their portfolios in the meantime as before. It is impossible to say definitely at present what position may be accorded to any particular minister, but it will be found, when the reorganization is completed, that Mr. Chapleau's past services to his country, and his recognized influence among his fellow-countrymen, have not been overlooked, and that his abilities will be made available for an important post in the Government.

This is all very well in the way of smoothing over the difficulty, but it does not do away with the statement that Chapleau presented an "ultimatum" to the Premier, insisting on his being made Minister of Railways, which office he said he was promised by both Sir John Macdonald and Mr. Abbott. It is interesting to compare this "official statement" with the utterances of La Presse, Chapleau's Montreal paper, which recently said:

The whole question is whether there were agreements between Mr. Abbott and his colleague, Mr. Chapleau, in the month of June last. The Prime Minister said in the Senate that no arrangement had been made by the Government for the ulterior distribution of portfolios, and he caused the same statement to be repeated on the floor of the House of Commons by Sir John Thompson. This point seems then conceded. If there had been such a promise made on the part of the Prime Minister, his words bound the Government and the newspapers had nothing to say. That Mr. Chapleau is qualified for the position no one doubts; that he has merited this mark of confidence even his enemies cannot deny; besides, all the noise that is being made only goes to show it the more. But one point more remains, yet it is a most important one. Is there to be an attempt made to deprive him of that distinction on such futile pretexts as "the interests of the party," wise concessions to a powerful province, or conciliations in the presence of a hostile movement in Ontario or elsewhere? We have no hesitation in saying that it would be a great weakness to give in under such conditions. It would be an act of cowardice on the part of the Secretary of State to stand the throwing of such mud as they have covered him with simply on account of such a promotion, and to tranquilly stand by and see such mud thrown on his record as a party man, a fighter, and a representative of a proud and powerful race. We have no objection to the Prime Minister choosing in Ontario the colleagues that he pleases. With his guarantee we accept them, whoever they may be. But we do not want the Province of Ontario to choose the Ministers from the Province of Quebec. It would then be confederation no longer, but legislative union. No, Monsieur Chapleau, put on rather the grey coat of Canadian tweed, put on the blue tie, instead of the Windsor uniform. It will not be long before you resume the letters patent which will well be worth the portfolio that somebody else may have taken from you.

This was intended as an answer to the Empire and other Tory papers which entered objections to the promotion of the Secretary of State. Try to disguise it as he may, the valiant Secretary of State has deemed it well to pocket his snub and content himself with what he has. Further confirmation of this is furnished by the following interview with Col. Ouimet, who is now, it appears, a member of the Cabinet, and is known as one of Chapleau's staunchest partizans. The Colonel is thus reported:

"I think the matter has been pretty well arranged, or is in the course of arrangement, and will be settled amicably in the interests of the party."

"Well Chapleau remain Secretary of State?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Ouimet, "for the present."

"That is what the newspapers term a backdown?"

"Well," said the member for Laval, philosophically, "all politicans must yield to public opinion and to party exigencies, and Chapleau is not superior to the forces. There was no resignation, but Mr. Abbott intimated to Chapleau that he could not keep his promise to give Chapleau the portfolio of Railways and Canals, and in view of what had been appearing in the public press this was—well, humiliation to Chapleau, but I think the matter will be settled amicably."

It may be remarked that all this tends to discredit the report that Chapleau was to succeed Dewdney as Minister of the Interior when the latter became Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia. It would be hard to discover any satisfactory reason for such a change. Dewdney is an incapable Minister of the Interior, but Chapleau would be worse, for his knowledge of the Northwest is practically nil, and he could hardly be expected to take enough time from his political intrigues to acquire any. The only reason for Chapleau being put in Dewdney's place would be that Chapleau has a following while Dewdney has none, and the Cabinet needs all the personal influence it can wield.

It seems settled, at all events, that Dewdney is coming here as Lieut.-Governor. There is only one way in which this affliction can be averted, and that is by the British Columbia members entering a decided protest and backing it up with their votes, if necessary. We do not expect to see them take any such step, but if they had any independence they could in this matter do the Province a great service.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The People's Party, alias the Farmers' Alliance, figured very poorly in the elections on Tuesday. In nearly every county in Kansas their vote showed a great decrease from the previous election, and their candidates were successful in only 6 out of 106 counties reported. Jerry Simpson's influence seems to have waned since he began to wear socks.

It is pointed out that the Democratic success in New York was not due to Tammany, but to the rural vote. The majority in New York city was less than usual, but this falling off was more than counterbalanced by gains throughout the State, which apparently means that the farmers are growing tired of high taxation.

EDUCATIONAL MISMANAGEMENT.

TO THE EDITOR.—Dr. Pope is reported to have stated that the other cities were satisfied with the School Act. I take the following from the Daily Columbian in reference to the New Westminster schools:—"Class IV., Miss Dockrill—pupils enrolled, 85 boys. Class IV., Miss Homer—pupils enrolled, 127 girls" for the month of October. The Columbian says:—"The completion of the new central school will be hailed with delight by teachers and scholars alike, as, owing to the present crowded state of some of the class rooms, the teachers are under the great disadvantage of having more pupils than they can conveniently attend to, and the children are crowded together most uncomfortably. In Miss Dockrill's room to-day the number of children was 74, in Miss Homer's 98, and not only were three children crowded into the seats intended for two, but chairs were pressed into service in addition. In Mr. Morrison's room, notwithstanding the open windows, the air was not as pure as it should be, from the fact that the room was never intended to hold more than two-thirds of the number of children present. That the number of pupils is increasing fast may be gathered from the fact that nine new pupils presented themselves for admission yesterday. The trustees hope to be in a position to build a new western school next year, as the junior division is badly crowded, the daily average attendance in September being 63."

How could New Westminster be satisfied to have one teacher trying to teach 127 pupils, while in Victoria West four teachers are provided to teach a less number? How can the Legislature overlook such gross favoritism or mismanagement?

"Pet."

Why She Was Raised.

In a public school in this county within the past two weeks the teacher was conversing with her class on matters suggested by the lesson on hand, and among other things the bestowal of titles and rewarding men for public services rendered to the state, etc. A brilliant thought suddenly occurred to the teacher, and she asked: "Why was Lady Macdonald raised to the peerage after the death of her husband, the late Prime Minister of the Dominion?" The question was no sooner asked than an equally brilliant thought occurred to one of the pupils, and the latter answered, "Please, ma'am, she was raised up to keep her out of the scandals at Ottawa." Let anybody beat that if they can. The language is very simple, but it contains a world of meaning. The lad who answered the question so philosophically is the progeny of a Scotch Grit.—Mitchell Recorder.

A POPULAR YOUNG LADY.

A Victoria Miss Takes a Coveted Prize—A Fine Gold Watch.

The Loyal Orange Lodge 1597 of Saanich gave its annual ball last evening and the attendance as is usual, was large. Good music and excellent refreshments were the rule, and everybody enjoyed themselves.

One of the principal attractions, however, was the voting on the most popular young lady out of a selection of fair ones from Victoria, Vancouver, Nanaimo and New Westminster, the same to be daughters of Loyal Orangemen.

The vote being taken, Miss Ida Ethel Isabelle Braden, eldest daughter of Mr. John Braden, of this city, headed the other candidates by a large majority, and she accordingly wins the prize, a magnificent $100 gold watch.

Miss Braden is justly proud of her handsome gift, to say nothing of satisfaction over the fact of being chosen as the most popular young lady of four cities. However, she won the prize fairly, and was entitled to it.

All On Account of a Supper.

Now and again the proceedings of the County Court are enlivened somewhat by amusing incidents. There was one to-day, which was proof of the frailty of the young man, the obliging spirit of the young lady who condescends to a Poodle Dog supper with him, and the after disinclination to recompense the piper for his melodious strains. Mr. Carpenter invited a couple of theatrical ladies to supper on June 9, so the statement in court goes, and took his friend Mr. Barrett along, so as to prevent any one having to play "gooseberry." "A very good supper" was enjoyed, commencing with oysters and washed down with sparkling liquid. Every one enjoyed him or herself, and the fair ones went away with feelings of high regard for the hospitality of their hosts. There the matter ended till the bill was presented, when a dispute arose which resulted in the present suit for the Chief Justice to decide whether the supper had been paid for; or, if not, how much it was worth. There was a good deal of fun brought out by the prosecuting lawyer, Mr. Mills, at the expense of some of the witnesses. What tales the Poodle Dog could bark if he liked. His lordship gave judgment for plaintiff, giving him permission to take out of court the sum of $10 paid in by defendant.

The strong westerly wind which has been blowing all day will probably bring several ships up the straits.

British ship Leading Wind, Captain Savory, 1280 tons, which sailed from Moodyvilld on August 6th, arrived in Melbourne on Oct. 27th.

The American tug S. L. Mastick, known for several years past as one of the best towing steamers on Puget Sound, has been purchased by the McLaren-Ross Lumber Co., of Westminster.

The steamer Victorian defeated the City of Seattle by three minutes in an exciting race from Alki point to Tacoma Thursday afternoon. The time of the trip was not given. The Victorian left Seattle first, but waited for the City of Seattle at Alki Point.

The bark Seminole, which arrived at Port Blakeley Saturday from San Francisco, has been libelled by the eight sailors who came up on her for $250 apiece, on the ground that they were shipped from San Francisco for the round trip to Puget Sound, and thence with lumber, to Australia and return, but on reaching Port Blakeley were discharged by Captain Weedin.

A CHIEF JUSTICE'S DAUGHTER

Earnestly Engaged in Salvation Army Work in Ontario.

Belleville Ontario.]

A three-line item in the St. Catharines Standard of yesterday's issue has written beneath it a story which is seldom met with in real life. The item reads: "Miss Galt, daughter of Judge Galt, conducted the meeting of the Salvation Army here yesterday afternoon." This is all it said, yet it might have given a lady's history in columns. She is the daughter of Chief Justice Sir Thomas Galt, and was reared and educated like any other young lady of her station. Miss Galt has just finished a large series of meetings in Belleville, and nightly attracted immense crowds to hear her sweet, powerful voice as it was raised in song and prayer. She is still young, twenty-six or twenty-seven years, handsome and refined. Several years ago, while other girls were still thinking of balls or parties, she decided to give herself up to the Master. She at once acted on that decision, and entered the ranks of the Salvation Army as a soldier. All she had she gave to the work, and in the service she had entered she labored and lived as those more humbly born. She was sent to Montreal, and during the cold winter following her conversion she who had been raised in luxury lived in a fireless, uncarpeted room, cheered only by the grand work she was doing. And ever since she has lived and worked as she began, deadly in earnest in the work of Him whose call she answered.

The other day a few tins of white lead was found at the bottom of Esquimalt harbor, where it had been planted by thieves. The Vancouver World in mentioning the matter says 130 tons of white lead was found.

Plaintiff Defeated.

In the case of Neilson vs. Hackett in the county court yesterday before the Chief Justice, plaintiff was defeated. A claim had been made for seaman's wages, on a plea of wrongful shipment, but it was not allowed.

Good Sense Shown.

Mr. R. Carson, of Clinton, won the prize at the Ashcroft fair for the best exhibit of a new variety of potatoes. He had the choice of prize and very wisely selected the DAILY TIMES for one year. Mr. Carson knows a good thing.

Local Capitalists.

Mr. C. A. Holland, director of the B. C. Land and Investment Agency (successors to Alsop & Mason), in his evidence in Harper vs. Cameron quoted his company as representing between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 capital in this province.

A Bulletin Board.

Manager Christie of the C. P. R. Telegraph Company has had a bulletin board put up outside the telegraph office, where regular reports from Carmanah and way points will be posted. This will be a great convenience to mariners.

The Short Route to Esquimalt.

The English admiralty have decided to send a crew to the man-of-war Champion via Halifax and the Canadian Pacific Railway to Victoria. Hitherto it has been the custom to send the crews of ships recommissioned to the Pacific by way of Colon.

A Slight Breakdown.

The upper tumbler reel of the Government dredge broke yesterday and it will be a few days before the machine can be got running again. The Albion Iron Works has the job in hand of making a new reel, and next week the work of deepening the harbor will be gone on with.

New Lodge I. O. O. F.

On Friday evening next Acme Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be instituted in Odd Fellows Hall, Douglas street. The new lodge has a large charter membership, and will make a start under the most favorable auspices. It is composed largely of young men. Odd Fellowship is evidently growing fast in this city.

Deny the Story's Truth.

A dispatch from San Francisco says that the Victoria story of the actions of the United States steamer Baltimore at Valparaiso is regarded with incredulity here. The charges of acting as a spy have heretofore all been directed against the cruiser San Francisco. The Baltimore was not at Valparaiso at the time.

A Close Call.

As Chief Engineer Steven of the steamer Princess Louise and one of the men from the steamer were landing from a small boat at the C. P. N. wharf this morning, a sudden squall came up and filled the boat with water. The occupants scrambled out just in time to save themselves from taking a rather chilly salt water bath.

Fraternal Greetings.

A new lodge of the Sons of St. George was established at Spring Ridge last evening under the title of "Columbia Lodge." The following officers were elected and installed: W. F. Fullerton, P. President; John Moore, W. President; R. H. Bassett, W. V. President; W. J. L. Hamilton, W. Secretary; Frank Todhunter, W. Ass. Secretary; Sidney Shore, Treasurer; Alfred W. Carter, Messenger.

Fun for Little Ones.

The little ones can no longer visit the park and other pleasure resorts on Saturday afternoon on account of the bad weather, but there is one place where many of them can spend a pleasant and useful afternoon. Mrs. Dickinson has returned from California and re-opened her dancing class at Harmony Hall, where many children go for pleasure and to learn how to enjoy themselves. The Saturday evening class commences to-morrow evening.

A Coming Event.

The sale of work and high tea to be held in St. James' hall, James Bay, by the St. James' Sewing Society, promises to be an enjoyable affair. The sale of work will commence at 2 o'clock and continue throughout the afternoon and evening. The ladies have made baskets full of pretty things which they will offer for sale. The high tea will take place between six and eight o'clock, after which the band of the H.M.S. Warspite will perform.

A Strange Offer.

The Chinese lepers at Vancouver are causing a great deal of trouble and talk to the Terminal City folks just now, and several are the schemes put forward to get rid of the loathsome wrecks of humanity. One Vancouverite has informed the authorities that he will, for the sum of $300, take the four lepers into the interior, and will guarantee that they never shall return to the city. What the fate of the poor wretches will be if the offer is accepted is hard to imagine.

Not Allowed to Exhibit.

A couple of weeks ago a deformed baby, minus legs and one arm, was on exhibition here. The show was not a financial success, as the citizens of Victoria are not morbidly inclined and do not care to look at such monstrosities. The parents of the poor deformed infant took it to Seattle and started in exhibiting it there, but the authorities closed down on the same on complaint of the Humane Society, which held that exhibiting the babe in a cold room was cruelty, to say nothing of the debasing influences of the show.

Civil Service Examination.

The Dominion civil service examination for local candidates will commence at the city hall at 9 o'clock on Tuesday the 10th inst., under the direction of Rev. M. C. Browne. All candidates whose applications were made on or before the 21st of October, are eligible for this examination.

Orangemen at Saanich.

The Agricultural Hall at Saanich was last evening, crowded with the Orangemen and their friends from Victoria and Saanich. The merry throng danced from early in the evening until long after midnight. Many Victorians reached home at daylight. Prof. Haynes' orchestra supplied the music for the occasion.

Detected in Trickery.

A Chinaman was fined $50 at the Custom House yesterday for impersonating someone else. He tried to get a ticket-of-leave on a totally different name than his own, but was detected in his trick with the result mentioned above. The custom's officers are obliged to be ever on the alert to keep up to the wily Mongolians.

Pleasure Seekers.

There is registered at the Driard a party of Tacomans who are on pleasure bent, and have been taken in the city and surroundings to-day in spite of the disagreeable weather. The party is made up of Mr. and Mrs. G. Browne, Franklin Plummer, Miss Plummer, Miss Edith Plummer, Miss Dickinson, Miss Little, Walter Oakes, P. W. Oris, J. H. Watson, jr., and C. S. Milligen. Walter Oakes is a son of the president of the N.P.R.

The Old People's Home.

Mr. John Teague has prepared a design for an Old People's Home to be erected on the grounds given for that purpose by Mr. R. P. Rithet. The plan shows a long cottage-like structure, comfortably and conveniently arranged inside, the outside presenting a neat and pleasing appearance. The idea will be shown to the Mayor and council for approval, in case of which an effort will be made to raise the necessary funds for the building.

Caned a Sergeant.

Sergt. H. A. Holloway, R.M.I., of the Warspite, was last evening presented with a fine gold-headed and silver-tipped Malacca dress cane. The gift was from the members of the Victoria School of Arms, who have received much valuable instruction from Sergt. Holloway during his stay here. The presentation was accompanied with a very flattering address, to which the Sergeant replied in proper style. The cane, which is very handsomely engraved, was manufactured by A. A. Clayton, and is a beautiful souvenir which will be highly prized by the recipient.

Foundering of the Pacific.

Just sixteen years ago, Nov. 4th, 1875, the ill-fated ship the Pacific foundered off Cape Flattery, only one out of over 100 lives surviving. The memory of that disaster, which in more than one instance swept away a whole family and spread the gloom of death in others, is still fresh, notwithstanding the lapse of time. Among her passengers were F. Garesche, Miss A. Reynolds, J. H. Sullivan, Captain and Mrs. Parsons, Isaac Foster, J. W. Doyle, John Kennedy, S. Nicholson, William Powell, Miss F. Palmer, Miss Lawson, Mrs. Moote, Mrs. S. F. Styles and child, D. C. McIntyre, C. B. Fairbanks, A. B. Odway, W. J. Ferry, James H. Webb, J. F. Johnson, Thos. J. Cochrane, S. P. Moody, T. J. Ferrell, Mr. Summers, C. Summers, J. Cahill, John Watson, E. H. and Wm. Polley, Col. Mandeville, wife and child, R. Hudson, H. Cline, E. P. Atkins, Thomas Beverly, R. Layrell, W. Waldron, J. Lee, G. Gribble, Geo. Morton, John McCormick, John Sampson, William Willis, A. Lang, John C. Todd, James Lenning, P. L. Chapman, Isaac Webbs, George Bird, Edward Sheppard, Frank McLaughlin, George Brisdon, William Campion, Samuel Nicholson, William Power, Richard Turnbull, John Kenealy, Charles Smith, G. Herne, A. G. Ramsey, E. and F. Journeaux, Ernest Mayer, Joseph Haverly, E. Martin, J. Thompson, W. H. J. Creden, P. Canty, C. W. Miles, A. Foster, and 42 Chinamen.

There was also a whole circus, its effects and staff lost. The name of the man who was saved was Henry L. Jelley.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

ONE MORE HANDSOME HOME.

Erected for Mr. Joseph Sayward from Plans Designed by Mr. A. M. Muir.

Mr. Joseph Sayward's house, at the corner of Belcher and Moss streets, is now all but completed. Located as it is in one of the prettiest of Victoria's many pretty sites, it commands a magnificent view overlooking the straits and surrounding country. The house itself presents a very pleasing appearance viewed from any point, and, together with the location and general surroundings, will always be a source of pleasure as well as a credit to all concerned. It is built in a most substantial manner from foundation upwards and will doubtless be a most convenient and comfortable place of residence. The whole of the lower part of the building has been utilized as a basement, which is used for the purposes of heating, chamber, laundry, etc., and is floored with asphaltum. The principal floor has a fine reception hall, having a comfortable alcove fire place. The main staircase facing the entrance rises from this room. On the right hand the parlor is located, which commands a magnificent view both in the direction of the south and west. The sitting room is placed behind, also with a southern aspect. The dining room is located at the south-east corner, and is connected with the kitchen by pantry and china closets fitted up in a most complete manner, the kitchen is well arranged and has command of the basement and upper floor by stairs provided for that purpose and also has a rear door. The principal rooms, in fact all the rooms, are so arranged as to receive plenty of sunlight, and are sheltered from the colder winds that prevail. The upper floor has five good sized chambers provided with commodious closets etc. The attic floor is finished for the purposes of a billiard room, indeed, all avilable space has been fully utilized.

The basement is built of stone, and the upper part frame, sized lumber. The interior has been finished in cedar, natural wood. The mantles are all of hard wood both American and local; the grates and tiles are of elegant American pattern. Gas and electric light fixtures, electric bells, are provided, and the whole is heated with hot water.

Contractor A. J. Woodward has done his work in an excellent manner under the superintendence of the architect, Mr. A. Maxwell Muir.

The Daily Matinee.

From first impressions on entering the police court this morning the visitor would have come to the conclusion that his honor, the police magistrate, contemplated going out on a picnic, and that he intended to take the clerk and police force with him. This impression would have been gathered from the presence of a large quantity of miscellaneous provisions, consisting of canned milk, jelly, bacon, cake and other edibles. Sec nd thoughts coupled with the state of the weather and the period of the year showed, however, that there must be some mistake in the picnic question. The provisions were not choice enough for a select party of this character either, besides which the magistrate was not attired in picnic costume. James Davies was the cause of having the food on the table, for which food he was not truly thankful. He abstracted it from the stores of the steamer Thistle, and the fact of his being found with it necessitated his visit to the police court. His honor after hearing the several statements in the case committed Davies for trial, sending him in the meantime to a place where he need have no anxiety as to what he shall eat, or what he shall wear. Mr. Johns will provide all this. The provisions were returned whence they came. John Glarin was charged with larceny of a "heave" line, the property of the C. P. N. company. It is not known what his object was, so he was remanded till to-morrow. A drunk was discharged.

Semamineck Hanged Himself.

Coroner Morrison held an inquest this afternoon touching the death of the Indian Semamineck, whose body was found last week at Saanich. The evidence adduced corroborated the account given in these columns with regard to the desire of deceased to marry his sister-in-law. The difficulties which he met in this seem to have weighed upon his mind and led him to commit suicide. It was shown at the inquest that he was found suspended from the limb of a tree by a cord which he used as a belt. As there was no proof of any enmity existing between himself and any of the other Indians, the jury gave a verdict in accordance with the evidence.

The Kokisilah Shooting.

Provincial Sergeant Langley went up the line yesterday to look after the man Joe Blair who shot at the Chinaman at Kokisilah. The man gave himself up last night at Duncan's, and will be tried to morrow on the charge of shooting. The Chinaman is now all right, having only been shot through the fleshy part of the shoulder.

ARCHDUKE JOHANN.

He is Now Reported to be Living with His Wife in Chili.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Sun says Archduke Johann of Austria, a nephew of the Emperor, gave up his place in the army a year and a half ago and started on a sea voyage with his morganatic wife. Nothing was heard of them for over a year, and they were supposed to have perished by shipwreck. News has been received in the city that the Archduke is safe and well and is living with his wife in Chili, where he is said to have served as a soldier in the recent Chilian revolt. This news was received in a letter to Camillio Stubel, a member of the Casino company and a brother of Jennie Stubel, the Archduke's wife. She was an actress in Vienna when the Archduke met her and fell in love with her. The letter was from actor Stubel's mother. She said she had received a letter from the Archduke. He wrote that both he and his wife were well. He wrote how he had gone to sea as Captain Johann Orth, and had been wrecked off South America. He and his wife were picked up, and reached Chili, where they are living comfortably. He said nothing of what he proposed to do next. Archduke Johann's royal relatives were very much excited over his infatuation for the chorus girl. She was a member of the Conrad Opera Company, and was very pretty. The insurance on the Archduke's ship was paid recently to his relatives by a Hamburg company. Proceedings for a partition of his property in Austria were begun several months ago.

THE CHILIAN TROUBLE.

A Frank Criticism of the United States' Action by a Friend.

San Francisco Examiner.]

The seeds of the present Chilian trouble were sown ten years ago. Then, as now, Mr. Blaine was the American Secretary of State. At the close of the Peruvian war Mr. Blaine was earnestly opposed to allowing Chili to annex any Peruvian territory. The Chilians had begun and carried through the war for that express purpose, and they were exasperated at the prospect of being balked of their returns. They were defiant. Mr. Blaine sent a special embassy to carry the protest of the United States, and it was understood that the remonstrance would be backed up, if necessary, by force. While the envoy, accompanied by young Walter Blaine, was on his way Garfield died, and, on the accession of President Arthur, Frelinghuysen succeeded Blaine as Secretary of State. The new Secretary at once reversed Mr. Blaine's policy and countermanded his instructions. The Blaine embassy was snubbed by the Chilian Government, and the Chilians became intoxicated with the belief that they had intimidated the United States. Mr. Blaine himself was naturally sore over his own and his son's humiliation. When he again assumed office under President Harrison the Chilians were distrustful of him. The Chilian delegates to the Pan-American Congress absented themselves from the opening session in order to avoid voting for him for the Presidency of that assemblage.

The appointment of Patrick Egan as Minister to Chili added to the unpopularity of the United States in that country. The Chilians thought that Mr. Blaine was showing them disrespect by paying his political debts at their expense. At first Egan was badly treated by Balmaceda, but as the President began to suffer the hostility of his people he drew nearer to the American minister. This made Egan still more unpopular. When the revolution broke out our Government enforced its neutrality laws in a way the insurgents considered harsh. The Congressional vessel Itata had come to San Diego to buy provisions and equipments. A cargo of arms and ammunition was shipped on board the schooner Robert and Minnie and sent to sea to be transferred to the Itata. Just before the steamer was ready to sail she was seized by the United States marshal under orders from our Government. But she soon put to sea with the marshall on board, landing him outside the harbor, met the Robert and Minnie and took on the arms. The Charleston was sent in pursuit, but the Itata reached one of the insurgent ports before she could be overtaken. She failed to profit by her escape, however. The Baltimore, San Francisco and Pensacola were at Iquiqui, and the American admirals are said to have threatened that unless the Itata was surrendered with all her cargo they would blockade the town and capture the insurgent fleet. The vessel was given up and escorted by the Charleston to San Diego, where she remained during the rest of the war. The Congressionalists asserted that they could have overthrown Balmaceda months earlier if they had had the arms carried by the Itata, and they were intensely exasperated by the action of the United States, both by the seizure of the vessel and the delay of the court in disposing of her case.

When the insurgent army landed near Valparaiso the San Francisco sailed to Quintero Bay to watch the proceedings, and then returned to her anchorage. The excited imaginations of the populace transformed this action into a deliberate attempt to spy in the interest of Balmaceda. After the fall of the dictator several of his partizans were sheltered in the American legation at Santiago and others were carried to Peru by the San Francisco. Instead of looking upon these things as acts of humanity the victorious party saw in them only exhibitions of American hatred to the Chilian people. The result of all this was that when a party of sailors from the Baltimore were allowed to go on shore for a day's liberty they were attacked by a mob, including many Chilian soldiers, sailors and policemen, several of them being wounded and one killed. Many of the unarmed Americans were then arrested and kept in jail until the officers of the Baltimore secured their release. Captain Schley at once instituted an investigation, and when his conclusion that the fault lay entirely with the Chilians was telegraphed to Washington our Government, a week ago, demanded redress.

The Silver Question.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The New York chamber of commerce to-day appointed a commission, including ex-Mayor Hewitt and Carl Schurz, to urge upon Congress such a modification of the act of July 4, 1891, as will suspend the further purchase of silver and any additional coinage until an international agreement is arrived at between the United States and other commercial nations of the world, the President also to call the attention of Congress to the subject in his next message.

VANCOUVER GETTING SCARED.

The Question of the Chinese Lepers is a Momentous One—What is to be Done?

A dispatch from Vancouver yesterday says: The two leprous Chinamen who were yesterday given their liberty by order of the city council passed all of last night and to-day in the shack where they were locked up. Although nominally they are no longer prisoners, their liberty is of no use to them, for no one will go near them, not even their fellow-countrymen refuse to give assistance in any way. Last night it was said, and it seems with good foundation, that the poor wretches were to be smuggled across to Portland, where they would be put on the Upton line steamship Sussex and taken to Hongkong, but there has been no move of the kind made so far, and a keen watch is being made by the United States Consular authorities to see that nothing of the kind is attempted. The creatures are without provisions, and certain it is that unless some food is given them they will starve. On all sides the action of the board of aldermen is rigorously condemned, yet no one cares to make a move to put the responsibility on any one in particular. It is said that if something is not done to-morrow a public meeting will be called to discuss the matter. The dread of the loathsome disease is such that all employing Chinese servants in any way are nearly frantic for fear they will come in some way into contact with the lepers and communicate the disease.

A Railway Split.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—George B. Blanchard, chairman of the Central Traffic Association, comes out with another version of the story concerning his connection with the Cairo Short Line and his suit against Donald McLean. He says: "I deemed the Pacific Short Line enterprise of intrinsic merit. James M. Clark, late president of the Illinois Central Railroad, personally examined the whole route and reported that the grading, shorter distance and local resources would make it the best transcontinental line. I therefore became interested in its construction with F. O. French, president of the Manhattan Trust Co., and others, and in the final distribution received only $168,000 of the improvement stock at par for services rendered. McLean told me he could sell one half of this amount, or $84,000, at 15 per cent., which I authorized him to do in October, 1888. In the following December he reported the sale of that amount at that price, and in March, 1889, he placed $13,500 (not $15,200, as stated) to my credit in a bank, giving his note dated Chicago, April 9, for value received for an agreed remainder of $5800, first deducting a commission. Upon this unpaid note my action was based. The Pacific Short Line credit was in no wise involved with my bank through any transaction of mine. Aside from the foregoing I never sold a dollar of any interest. The legal answer to the formal complaint does not contain the personal intimations as reported. I leave this to be dealt with hereafter."

Secretary Proctor Steps Out.

BURLINGTON, Vermont, Nov. 5.—Hon. Redfield Proctor arrived here last night from Washington. Before leaving the national capital he wrote his resignation as Secretary of War and placed it in the hands of President Harrison. No time was stated in the letter for the resignation to take effect, but the expectation is that the President will accept it shortly. Secretary Proctor has completed his annual report and closed up his departmental work. He will on his return notify Governor Page of his acceptance of appointment to the U. S. Senate, vice Edmunds, resigned.

Run on a Savings Bank.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The run on the Five Cent savings bank continued to-day. People were standing in line at the door at 7 a.m. President Evans says the doors are guarded to keep the bank from being over crowded. Every hour they are opened to allow all the bank will accommodate to enter. No action has yet been taken by the trustees on the sixty days clause.

BOKHARA'S BURIED CITY.

Much Rude Magnificence Discovered Hidden Beneath the Earth's Surface.

The discovery is reported from Bokhara of a subterranean city on the bank of the river Amoolaria, near the town of Karki. Silver coins and inscriptions of the time of Gapora I. have been found in the place, which reaches over a distance of half a mile, with streets, lanes and squares. In places the superincumbent earth has caved in, but the largest part of the city can be traversed without difficulty. By the light of the miners' lamps the place presents a quaint, fantastic appearance. There are houses in perfect construction, one or two stories high, with a pretense of architectural elegance, and filled with furniture and various domestic utensils. The ceiling or upper covering of the streets is constructed of blocks of alabaster and granite. The natives of the Bokhara knew of the place long ago, and carried away many silver and gold coins, ornaments and utensils of great intrinsic value and of still greater archaeological importance. The Russian authorities of Bokhara have made arrangements to take care of the antiquities of the place, and sent notice of its discovery to the archaeological society at Moscow. The society has sent a commission of experts to make further explorations.

How to Get Rich.

The art of money getting, according to the late P. T. Barnum, is summed up hereunder: "Don't drink; don't be above your business; don't mistake your vocation; select the right location; avoid debt; persevere; whatever you do, do with all your might; depend upon your own personal exertions; use the best tools; don't scatter your powers; be systematic; read the newspapers; beware of outside operations; don't indorse without good security; advertise your business; be polite and kind to your customers; be charitable; don't tell what you are going to do; and preserve your integrity."

A Lucky Find.

A Pennsylvania spinster died recently leaving nothing to her relatives save an old bustle. This they promptly pitched into the fire, but as promptly pulled it out again when they saw a greenback of a large denomination sticking out from one corner. They found a fortune in the bustle.

THE TAR AND THE COUGAR.

The cougar secures its prey by creeping stealthily behind it until near enough to spring upon and strike it down. It will attack a man in the daytime if it can approach him unseen, and is hungry. In an article contributed to The Big Game of North America Mr. W. A. Perry describes a terrible fight between a Swedish sailor and a cougar, which took place near the house of the writer's father.

The sailor, Joseph Jorgenson, ran away from a British man of war, anchored in a harbor of British Columbia, and made his way to Washington, where he took up a quarter-section of government land. One morning he began clearing a spot whereon to build a house. He was vigorously wielding a spade, when suddenly his arm was seized by a cougar's jaws.

Joe was very strong, and by a kick in the stomach he forced the beast to fall to the ground. The cougar sprang at the man's throat. With his left arm Joe warded off its jaws, while with his right he dealt it a blow in the ribs that again felled it to the ground.

Quick as a flash the beast seized Joe's left hand. With his right fist and heavy boots Joe beat and kicked the animal until it released his hand. Retreating a short distance, it sprang on his breast and knocked him against a tree. Again he cuffed and kicked it until it let go and retreated.

Joe then happened to see the spade he had been using lying at his feet. He snatched it and warded off the cougar's spring by a timely thrust. The brute fell at the man's feet, but instantly sprang and seized him by the thigh. Concentrating his strength, Joe drove the sharp blade of the spade into the beast's head, and it fell dead at his feet.

Bitten and scratched, the blood streaming from a dozen wounds, he reeled home. It was many weeks before he recovered, and when he grew strong he had lost all desire for farming. He shipped on an American coaster as a sailor, saying that he had less fear of the sharks than of the "big kitties."

A TEST OF CLASSIC MUSIC.

Simple Method by Which Even the Most Ignorant May Judge.

According to the Dusseldorfer Anzeiger there is a very simple method by which even the greatest skeptic may ascertain whether a piece of music is good, bad or indifferent. It is as follows: If the music goes "1, 2, 3, hop, hop, hop," or "1, 2, 3, bum, bum, bum," you may depend upon it that you are listening to unmitigated rubbish. But when you hear music which sounds as though a number of well arranged notes were stuck into a barrel and energetically stirred about like a sort of harmonious oatmeal porridge, then you may assume that it is a fugue, and at once compose your features into an expression of profound interest.

If, on listening to the music, you fancy the notes are dropping accidentally on the floor and from time to time asserting themselves again in a quiet, dreamy sort of way, then the piece is probably a nocturno, and nocturnos, as you are aware, are very high-class music indeed.

When the notes seem to arrive in truck loads and each truck contains, so to speak, a different sort from the one that has gone before, and when the train appears to take an unreasonable amount of time in passing a given point then the master piece is most likely a symphony, and symphonies are the greatest musical creations hitherto produced.

When it appears as though the notes had been tumbled down helter-skelter, then vigorously shoveled up into a heap and lastly blown into the air with dynamite cartridges—that is rhapsody, and rhapsody is the latest variety of music out.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

Wisdom's Violet Cream

Is the most exquisite preparation in the world for softening the hands and face. It is not only a substitute for, but in every respect superior to glycerine, cold cream, vaseline, and like preparations. Try it. D. E. Campbell, agent.

Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Sarsaparilla. It had Hood's wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

COAL

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power unequalled by any other bituminous Gas Coal in the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used on all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Matters of Interest Going Forward in the Sporting World, Here and Elsewhere.

THE TURF.

On broaching the subject of St. Blaise's service for outside mares, Mr. Reed says Messrs. Walcott & Campbell had already offered him $2,500 with a view of breeding Ruperta to him. But as St. Blaise's new owner has not yet determined whether to keep him exclusively for his own stud or not, this munificent sum was not accepted. Should Mr. Reed resolve to take the $2,500, it will be the highest price ever paid for a stallion's services, the late Hermit having previously held the record, when his owner advertised him at $1,200. Several other breeders have expressed their willingness to pay $1,500 for the services of St. Blaise, which totally eclipses the $1,000 asked by Longfellow.

Axtell, the Iowa stallion which astonished the trotting world as a three-year-old, is again to be trotted for a record. Col. John A. Conley, a member of the syndicate which paid $105,000 for Axtell, has decided to take the horse from the stud. Axtell will be placed in the hands of Mr. Budd Doble next year.

The yearling colt Rolleo, the property of the Jewett Stock farm, Buffalo, trotted a mile at Independence, on the 21st inst., in 2:31. This constitutes the world's record for a yearling. The youngster was sired by Jerome Eddy.

The Philadelphia ringer, Brown Frank, has been identified as Prince Hal, 2:16¼; and the whiskered driver as F. C. Barlow, who was expelled last year for ringing with Fred Fisch, a fast pacer by Windsor.

The stallion trotting record has been lowered as follows in the last 15 years: Smuggler, 2.15¼; Phallas, 2.13¾; Maxey Cobb, 2.13¼; Axtell, 2.12; Nelson, 2.10¼; Allerton, 2.10. Allerton, who now holds it, 2.09¼.

The growth of horse racing in the last ten years is illustrated by the fact that in 1880 the money to prizes by the racing associations amounted to about $150,000. Now it reaches nearly $5,000,000.

Next season the trotting associations of the Grand Circuit will be able to make a class for the 2.15 trotters if all goes well.

One thousand new performers have entered the 2.30 list so far this year.

CROOKED WORK SUSPECTED.

Comedy, the winner of the Cambridgeshire stakes at the Newmarket Houghton meeting on Wednesday last, has not been declared the winner by the judges. There is a suspicion of crooked work.

THE RING.

THE DENVER MAN KNOCKED OUT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The much talked of contest to a finish between George Wright, of Boston, and George Strong, of Denver, took place early this morning on Long Island. Strong was seconded by Billy Dacey and Jack Campbell, and Wright by Jim McCabe, Oscar Hornbacher and Billy Church. Con McAuliffe and Jim Burrill were timekeepers, and Peter Deghane referee. It proved but a short fight, as the Denver man was pounded all over. Wright won in about two minutes. Strong was covered with blood before he had been fighting one minute, and before the elapse of the second he had been knocked down half a dozen times.

CYCLING.

At the close of the big six day bicycle contest in New York on Saturday last, William Martin, of Detroit, was in the lead with a total of 1,466 miles, Ashinger came second with 1,441 and Lamb third, with 1,362. The scores of the three leading men speak volumes for their pluck and endurance and show what can be accomplished by men in good health and well trained to develop their highest capacity.

CRICKET.

NEW CRICKET CLUB.

A public meeting for the purpose of organizing a new cricket club will be held (by permission of Mayor Grant) in the city hall, on Monday, November 9, at 8 p.m. All persons who are interested in cricket and would like to see a good club organized, are requested to attend and lend their valuable aid in helping to make the meeting a success.

FOOTBALL.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

There will be a game at the Hill tomorrow afternoon between the Victoria Club and the Navy. Kick off at 3. The city team will be as follows: Goal, Raynes; backs, Fawkes and Howard; half backs, Bennet, Drake, Perkins; forwards, Goward, Allan, Perfect, Spring and Martin.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The fifth meet of the Hunt Club will be to-morrow at Stadacona, the residence of Major Dupont. The hares, Messrs. C. W. Ward and F. Ward will start at 2:30 p.m. sharp, with 20 minutes grace. It is expected they will give a first class run.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Mr. Frederic Archer Again on a Visit to Victoria—Other Events Coming.

Mr. Frederic Archer is again in Victoria, having arrived last evening from Chicago. He leaves for the Sound again to-night, but will return on Monday morning to be on hand for his recital at St. John's the same evening. Mr. Archer has not been to Europe since his last visit here. He was about to go, but found he would be too long away, so he just packed away his music, donned a flannel shirt and outing suit, and summered the fine weather away on Mackinaw Island. And a pleasant time he had of it. The great organist has now become a spoke in the fast moving wheel of the continent, Chicago, where, in response to widespread request, he has pitched his tent, and where he intends to stay. He has been almost everywhere now except to Australia, and although he would like to see Sydney and Melbourne, he is disinclined to take such a long journey. Mr. Archer is looking remarkably well, and those who listen to him Monday evening will hear him to advantage.

THE STOCK COMPANY.

The Imperial Stock Company gave a splendid presentation of Ticket of Leave Man last night to a crowded house, and the play lost none of its popularity in the hands of this strong organization. The houses are increasing nightly and their success is assured. The piece last night was admirably rendered, each role being taken in a manner satisfactory to the audience. Everyone expressed themselves much surprised to see so strong a company playing at popular prices. Miss Kate Dalglish as May Edwards was a great success and won fresh laurels. Miss Kitty Belmour kept the audience in roars of laughter throughout the piece. The rest of the company also took their parts admirably. To-night East Lynne will be played. This piece is always a favorite and needs no introduction to assure a crowded house. There will be a special ladies' and children's matinee at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon, for the benefit of those who cannot attend in the evening. The prices will be still farther reduced—children 15 cents, adults 35.

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be presented at the Victoria. The sale of will open at Waitt's music store tomorrow morning.

"A THING OF BEAUTY is a joy forever" accurately describes hall and lowe's beautifully finished cabinet portraits.
